2022-2023 Pre-School Voucher Application

Eligibility Criteria:

The applicant must be able to check all areas to be eligible for the voucher for families:

- Child must be tribally enrolled at Nome Eskimo Community (NEC) and not enrolled in another federally recognized tribe.
- A current resident of Nome or resident within 25 miles of the City Limits.
- Children must reside with a parent(s)/guardian(s) who is/are:
 - a. Working 20 hours or more per week,
 - b. Attending an educational job training program and studying for at least 20 hours/week facilitated by an accredited institution aimed at increasing a worker's employability such as college courses, driver's education, vocational education, certification programs, etc.
 - c. Actively seeking employment and provide at least 12 work searches per month due at least 1 week prior to the end of the month in order to continue participating. Applicants must request an extension if the information will be late. Assistance will be available for up to 6 months unless an extension is approved due lack of jobs the applicant is qualified for or other similar reasons.
 - d. Subsistence hunting/gathering for at least 20 hours or more per week and provide reasonable documentation such as fuel receipts, mileage log, time/date stamped photos to support their activities. Transportation to and from the hunting/gathering site can qualify towards the weekly hourly require.

Eligibility will continue for a period of twelve (12) months as long as the family does not experience a non-temporary change in work, education or training that effects their eligibility.

Families in need of child care services during a state disaster declaration or public health emergency may be eligible on a case by case basis and may be given priority. This includes parents who are deemed first responders or essential personnel during the disaster declaration or public health emergency.

NEC will also extend priority to children with special needs and families impacted by a state disaster declaration or public health emergency such as COVID-19. A child will be considered to have "special needs" if instructed by a physician and/or recognized professional within the medical and/or mental health field with a minimum of a Master's Degree and licensed by the state; or is on staff with a recognized mental rehabilitative/child development facility. Should funds become insufficient to meet the needs of the program, the amount of assistance to families who do not have special needs children will be reduced so that families with special needs can also be served.

Please note:

NEC will accept application through the school year. However, applications received within 5 working days of the end of the month will not be effective until the following month.
