

Nome Eskimo Community's 2023 Tribal Council Election – Ballot

To be eligible to run for NEC's Tribal Council, candidates were required to complete an application for candidacy with a signed disclosure statement, submit a letter of intent, and meet the following criteria:

1. A candidate must be a member of NEC;
2. Be at least 21 years of age;
3. Must not have any substantiated child protective history, in order to perform oversight duties relating to Family Services;
4. No felony convictions and no more than two misdemeanor convictions;
5. Has resided in close vicinity to the City of Nome for the last year and will continue to reside within the close vicinity.

Of the candidate applications received, the following three candidates were approved by the Tribal Council to appear on the ballot. Please cast your vote for up to three (3) of the following candidates. No more than one vote can be cast per candidate. "Write-in" candidates are not permitted. To vote for your preferred candidates, fill in the box next to each of their names.
